

VITANICA® ~ GINKGO

Herbal medicine use of ginkgo traces back over two thousand years. Our preparation features the most well-researched standardized dose as well as the time-honored use of the whole leaf.

Featured Ingredients:

- The body of German research focuses on standardized extracts with 24% ginkgo flavone glycosides and 6% terpene lactones, and so each of our capsules contain these precise compounds
- Our Ginkgo extract also contains a balance of bioflavonoids which support healthy vasculature and healthy function in the brain, cardiovascular system and central nervous system
- We've also included the historically used leaf, honoring traditional medicine and the synergy of the whole plant

Indications: Research and traditional uses indicate this versatile herb in support of healthy cognition, emotional well-being and healthy circulation in the extremities.

Suggested Use: 1 capsule, three times a day.
