

VITANICA® ~ COQ10 EXTRA™

One of the most diverse nutrients, CoQ10 is an essential component of the mitochondria in our cells and therefore supports several systems in our bodies, including cardiovascular, endocrine, and immune support.

Featured Ingredients:

- Each capsule contains a therapeutic dose of 100 mg of CoQ10 to promote healthy, optimal mitochondrial function
- Vitamin E and Vitamin C support maximum antioxidant activity when combined with CoQ10; Vitamin E also supports enhanced bioavailability
- Lipase is included to support better absorption since CoQ10 is a fat soluble nutrient
- Research shows positive support for CoQ10 in the cardiovascular, endocrine and immune systems, as well as maintenance for periodontal health
